“You Reap What You Sow”: Meaning & Origin

If a man were to sow his field with garlic and expect to reap barley, he would be bitterly disappointed.

Galatians 6:7 KJV: Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

We sowed iniquity and corruption, and Jesus reaped our punishment on the cross. When you are sowing the eighth year, you can still eat old things from the crop, eating the old until the ninth year when its crop comes in. And with his Spirit comes freedom.

Galatians 6:8

However, unlike his siblings, Death is shown to have a more civil and calm manner when dealing with the Winchesters; Death tells Dean that most people also talk to him with respect.

What does the Bible say about sowing and reaping?

You can do better each day as you grow in obedience. Another indulges in the sins of the flesh, so, when you see him with a broken constitution, and his whole being the very incarnation of misery, you are not surprised. Unlike the or Lucifer, Death considers and their involvement in the Apocalypse highly insignificant in the grand scheme of things.

Sow mortality frustrates experts

Does that description fit anyone here, and does he complain that I am very personal in my remarks? It is, indeed, beautiful beyond expression. Those who plant apple seeds should expect to harvest apples.
