She blinked slowly at the face close to her own, and when she felt his arms sag she became panicky, thinking: He's too thin, he can't carry me. Perhaps she had done this latest injury because her father had told Rodney not to buy her any more expensive presents; he said she was being spoilt and had come to look upon them as her right. As the daughter of a mining family, Katie Mulholland is forced to find work as a scullery maid in the house of the Rosiers.
