Latin Derivatives in English (English words with Latin roots)

Grani aestimationem per iniuriam post emptionem ablati, quae rationibus publicis refertur, curator rei publicae domino restitui iubeat. Quamvis sexaginta quinque annorum aliquis sit et tres liberos incolumes habeat, a muneribus tamen civilibus propter has causas non liberatur. The Caesars- whatever they may have been or done-prepared the way of the Lord.

DIRITTO ROMANO

It is thus quite clear that Tacitus regards the Christians as innocent, though he had not the slightest kindly feeling toward them. Ma i tempi cambiano e così accadde che, nel I sec.

Roma communis nostra patria

Ob hoc, quod furto pridem subtracta est, abest et ea res, quae in rebus humanis non est. Nihil peti potest ante id tempus, quo per rerum naturam persolvi possit: et cum solvendi tempus obligationi additur, nisi eo praeterito peti non potest. Artior vero colligatio est societatis propinquorum; ab illa enim immensa societate humani generis in exiguum angustumque concluditur.
