Muhammad Ali Jinnah

He was a compromise candidate when two older, better-known Muslims who were seeking the post deadlocked. He also gave Jinnah his address in London and later invited to dine with his family as often as he could. He went on to mention the Parsi community — a small fraction of the population of India, but rich and honoured because of their industry and organisation.

The Quaid

Jinnah resigned in that period. Mohammad Ali Jinnah: Founder of Pakistan.

Essay on Quaid e Azam

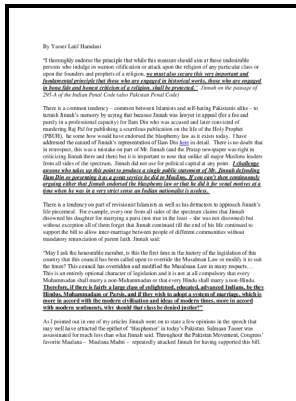

He was mesmerized by the acting, especially those of the Shakespearean actors. When the Indians failed to agree on the future shape of things he was so disappointed that he decided to settle down in England and stay away completely from politics. After the Lukhnow Pact in 1916, the nightingale of India Sarojini Naidu gave him the title of Ambassador of Hindu- Muslim Unity and wrote poems in his praise.

The Quaid

But what I wanted to convey most urgently to remark that in the first photo one sees Zafarullah Khan, the foreign minister, who was an Ahmadi and Jog.

Books And Articles On Quaid

Jinnah insisted on Pakistan being conceded prior to the British departure and to come into being immediately, while Gandhi proposed that plebiscites on partition occur sometime after a united India gained its independence. The failure of the Congress leadership to disavow Hindu worried Congress-supporting Muslims. Soon, however, the Quaid-i-Azam in his inimitable way put me at ease.
