17 Poets' Quotes About Poetry

Walked around without any masks or restrictions. Poetry is a slipknot tightened around a time-beat of one thought, two thoughts, and a last interweaving thought there is not yet a number for.

Plus, there's 30 ways to celebrate National Poetry Month: Number 10: Google a poem.

FILMS BASED ON POEMS, POETRY & POETS

Except when it comes to Samuel Johnson. Those rivulets join together to form a small stream winding it's way down the mountain where other streams join in, flowing faster over fallen trees and around large boulders. As long as I live my heart loves you; and when I die, my echo will follow yours even to the grave and whenever your soul stays.

Poets on Poetry: Quotations about poetry by poets

A relic of Romanticism is the Philosophers' Walk German: Philosophenweg , a scenic walking path on the nearby Heiligenberg, overlooking Heidelberg. I grew up in this town, my poetry was born between the hill and the river, it took its voice from the rain, and like the timber, it steeped itself in the forests.
