Where Is Paradise? Sermon by David Rigg, Luke 23:39

And we have our new building across the street in process of erection now, a tremendous assignment for us when we have so much else to do, but God honors the commitment! Commit to God a consuming, sacrificial commitment and dedication and see if the whole after-following of life does not glorify the name of the Almighty in heaven and does not strengthen you and bless you in the faith. Look at Paul tells Timothy in, 2 Timothy 3:1 But know this, that in the last days perilous times will come: 2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, 3 unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, brutal, despisers of good, 4 traitors, headstrong, haughty, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, 5 having a form of godliness but denying its power. To Become Sons and Daughters of Whom God Can Be Proud Ladies and gentlemen, let us examine the reality we face today.

Sermon: Run the Race

That may be true, and yet he may have attended a chapel—as chapels go in these times—for many a year. For this reason, you should understand that you are racers who are sprinting toward the purpose based on the standard of your conscience and your daily lives. The temptation is to run too fast too soon.

No wonder that, before he finds the Saviour, there should be a doleful cry in his ears, if Satan and conscience are both assailing him. Ah, my friends, that was a solemn moment when those notable guests turned their host out of doors; and did it all out of love and kindness, too; when the two angels took Lot, and his wife, and his daughters, by the hand, and dragged them forth, and bade them run! There are many ways of racing. So if you want a vision of heaven just be stoned for preaching the word.
