Canal Park

So the story of how difficulties were overcome at Akron may throw some light on the kind of people we are and the principles on which this nation was built.

The Hole at the Center of Everything

What exactly that film — which mimics the feet of the wall-scaling gecko — could do, and in which industries, is still being determined.

Rubber's Home Town, The Real

Instead, the industry itself went away.

The first hundred years are the hardest : the story of the University of Akron / [by] Norman P. Aubu...

Akron rubber firms proved fatally slow to adapt and found themselves swallowed by foreign competitors. Only an influx of refugees is keeping its aging population of 200,000 from shrinking further.
