During breaks from her studies Rita works in a factory which makes railway carriages and Wolf uses that environment as a microcosm of the socialism of that time. Yet there is something interesting in that as well, to trace the development of an important writer as she figures out how to navigate the reality of her world.

Blumensath, Heinz und Christel Uebach, a. I never started to care about any of the characters in the book. It's more directly political and more conventional.

Christa Wolf: geteilte im Kontext

März 1929 in Landsberg an der Warthe geboren. Wendland hat sich beim dortigen Werksleiter beschwert, der jedoch zurückschoss, sodass die Bezirksleitung Wendland Egoismus und Unbeherrschtheit vorwarf. This enormous vault of hope and yearning, love and sorrow? Reading this 30 years after German reunification, it seems like an unlikely story to happen at the moment.
