Chapter 1: Concepts of Community

The power of Egypt's theocratic monarchy was thus not entirely absolute, but there was little freedom to act against the law. This trend, if achieved, would be significant not only to the economic activity but also to the ecological sustainability of Xinjiang.

Yes, Race and Politics Belong in the Classroom (Opinion)

Source: Buenaventura-Posso and Brown 1990 Case Study 2 The Nayar of south India Studies considering gender hegemonies from medieval times to the early postcolonial period in south India indicate that within the strictures of caste, class, and gender stratifications, Nayar matrilineal social structure vested leadership and power in the male and allowed various degrees of autonomy to women. Essentialism is used as a source of strength.

How racial and regional inequality affect economic opportunity

Race, Politics, and Economic Development: Community Perspectives

In India, the spread of Hinduism over the continent had a similar, although more varied, impact.
