Examples of such suppression are also found in classical Arabic. In other words, the meanings of both rejecting the Hereafter and stinginess are implied in this expression.

Some people derive man's observation of God by the verse إِلَىٰ رَبِّهَا نَاظِرَةٌ. The words إِلَىٰ رَبِّهَا نَاظِرَةٌ mean that these people will await the blessings and favours of their Lord. With the grace of God, with these lines, I come to the end of this surah's exegesis.

Surah al

Only God, the Almighty knows the nature of this observation. Moreover, they go so far as to think that the real fault lies in people who are themselves bereft of prosperity yet are sounding such reminders and admonitions. The passive tense in the word يُنْمِي points to a lack of attention and any elaborate arrangement.
