Uruguay 2013: The Teatro Solís: 150 Years of Opera, Concert and Ballet in Montevideo

We are interested in the European presence, and particularly in its influence, and on how it has been re-elaborated in each local context, such as the case of the opera and zarzuela created in Uruguay. The repertory was just as interesting as the artists, and works like Pacini's Medea and Bondelmonte are known to have been performed in Montevideo. Without any doubt this is a pioneering work that researchers will find indispensable.
