* In addition, one person cited before the House Un-American Activities Committee purged himself of contempt by testifying. Included in the totals are two House citations and one Senate citation which were approved by committee in December 1960 and, since Congress was not in session, sent directly to the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House for certification. Then transmitted to the U.S. attorney. All approved by HJAC after adjournment, and therefore certified by the Speaker and transmitted to the U.S. attorney without a vote.
