The reading of the novel becomes more challenging and more enriched due to the tension raised by these micro-level antithetical structures. It is the story of Larry Darrell, young American, who gave up home and country, wealth and the woman he loved, to search across continents for the answer to his great question. It was Maugham's best selling book in the states, over Of Human Bondage and The Moon and Sixpence, which both received greater critically acclaim.
