Status and Trends in the Education of Racial and Ethnic Groups

But in some fields, white women are the overrepresented group. Were Brown to accept women and men at the same rate, its undergraduate population would be almost 60 percent women instead of—three women for every two men.

Race and Ethnicity in Higher Education

The intergroup ideology view Jackman 1994; Jackman and Mahu 1984 claims that groups at the top of the social structure create an interpretation of reality and a set of normative prescriptions that serve their interests. American Apartheid: Segregation and the Making of the Underclass.

50 Racism Quotes to Inspire Inclusion of All (Everyday Power)

Instead, the measure in this brief examines how well-represented each type of credential is among students of a given race. Turning to the variable of primary theoretical interest, Table 2 suggests that education does indeed have a direct effect on segregation.

Race And Education : Education

In recent years, the most visible evidence of this in the public policy arena has been the persistent attack on affirmative action in higher education and employment.

The Importance of Diversity in the Classroom

This latter problem could be especially prevalent in majors, such as engineering, where many programs use their introductory classes to weed out weaker students and may be doing so in a way that is ineffective or discriminatory. We argue that because education is a form of status, it does not increase the likelihood that Americans choose to live in integrated neighborhoods, or send their children to more integrated primary and secondary schools.
