In the absence of such authority - or of legislation to the same effect - the right falls within the traditionally broad concept of property in our law. The first is protection of a competent patient's right to make autonomous medical decisions. Although a patient may not retain any legal interest in a body part after its removal when he has properly consented to its removal and use for scientific purposes, it is clear under California law that before a body part is removed it is the patient, rather than his doctor or hospital, who possesses the right to determine the use to which the body part will be put after removal.

Enemies Quotes by Tim Weiner

We acknowledge that there is a competing consideration. In a memo describing the purpose of one MKULTRA program subprogram, Richard Helms said: We intend to investigate the development of a chemical material which causes a reversible, nontoxic aberrant mental state, the specific nature of which can be reasonably well predicted for each individual.
