House Republicans tell Texas to continue fighting Biden's federal overreach

During the Texas Revolution in 1836, the provisional government authorized the first official, government-sanctioned Ranger force to patrol the Texas frontier and protect settlers from raids by. Travis' impassioned letter asking for reinforcements to defend the Alamo. In that conflict between ranchers who wanted to keep the range open and those who wanted to fence in their land and livestock, the Rangers tracked down and arrested accused fence cutters.
