5 Reasons Scarlet Witch Belongs With Vision (& 5 She Belongs With Wonder Man)

And, by ingesting a heart-shaped herb that grants her enhanced physical strength and donning a suit made of vibranium, she fights villains as a hero in her own right. Her bio in the game says: Wanda Maximoff is the daughter of Magneto and twin sister of Quicksilver. If Star Wars wants to be more inclusive, they can start by involving more women in the creative process to avoid mishaps like this.

Third Eye Guide

Blankets is an autobiographical graphic novel by Craig Thompson, published in 2003 by Top Shelf Productions. In this series, she did not use the common outfit, but the short-lived one from the contemporary comics.

Women's History Milestones: A Timeline

Eventually, she landed in Gotham City and became a member of The Outsiders, a team of renegade superheroes assembled by the caped crusader himself. Scarlet Witch later visits Rogue in the hospital and asks for a truce and a return to their old friendship. She could also bring the dead back to life.

How The Avengers Should Really Look

The two twins grew up together taking care of themselves, and Pietro grew very protective of Wanda. The latter appeared on for awhile, but in a completely separate relationship, diverging the two universes once again.

Wonder Woman's feminism matters. So why would the comic industry reject it?

She-Hulk The Comic-Book Character: Originally a lawyer, Jennifer Susan Walters developed the angry-green gene after cousin Bruce Banner had to give her a blood transfusion. Due to her interest in science, she idolized and soon found herself in a position to fight by his side.
