50 thought

But they did not innovate and they did not invent. Librarians can help these people navigate that world.

Free eBooks

Some of the apps might have worthwhile features, but none are required to enjoy Project Gutenberg eBooks. Post one of our available graphics to your social media account and join the conversation by using the hashtags NationalLibraryWeek and LibrariesTransform. This is not a matter of party politics.

National Library Week

There are many sites where you can order your favorite quote printed on a poster, mug, t-shirt, and tons of other products. When you watch TV or see a film, you are looking at things happening to other people. You get to feel things, visit places and worlds you would never otherwise know.

And they found that all of them had read science fiction when they were boys or girls.

Lil' Libros

Literacy is more important than ever it was, in this world of text and email, a world of written information.

Summer Reading Challenge

Children can choose what they read; novels, fact books, picture books, graphic novels, joke books, eBooks and audiobooks all count towards completing the Challenge. Fiction is the lie that tells the truth, after all. And to give them nowhere to read those books.
