Gorbachev and the Collapse of Communism

The regime loosened its emphasis on socialist realism; thus, for instance, many protagonists of the novels of author concerned themselves with problems of daily life rather than with building socialism. During the first five years of Soviet power, the Bolsheviks executed 28 Russian Orthodox bishops and over 1,200 Russian Orthodox priests. Neoliberal austerity has created demographic losses exceeding Stalin's deportations back in the 1940s although without the latter's loss of life.
