The Concept of Citizenship in Education for Democracy. ERIC Digest.

The third part of the module is more practice-oriented. In keeping with this view, the Commission believes its educational mandate is to develop citizens who actively investigate and interpret their rights and responsibilities as Canadian citizens and as participants in democracy.

Global citizenship education redefined

Older students also have the benefit of being able to work independently on active learning projects for civic education.

Citizenship Education (Definition and 11 Teaching Ideas)

Education for global citizenship helps young people develop the core competencies which allow them to actively engage with the world, and help to make it a more just and sustainable place. In the future we hope to realise a joint international master and PhD programme in the field of moral and citizenship education of at least 10 weeks.

What are the Main Aims of Education?

Childhood, 21 1 , 7-21. In the post-war period, in particular shaped the modern thinking about political systems, institutions and rights and duties. Tolerance is mostly addressed at the interpersonal level and to a larger extent at the level of cultural groups, but very little at the level of an inclusive society.
