The Whitehall Study

DWP employs most of its staff directly, while MoJ employs around 4,300 in the department but a further 67,000 in public bodies it directly manages such as HM Prison and Probation Service HMPPS. Brigadier Jon Brittain was head of defence logistics and the Joint Forces Command, which brings together air, sea and land forces, until February 2016.

Stress

Who is in the sample? In principle, job strain could improve prediction of future CHD risk over and above the Framingham score if its association with future risk of developing CHD is not explained by the concurrently measured Framingham risk factors. In: Diet, nutrition and chronic disease: lessons from contrasting worlds, edited by Shetty P, McPherson K.

Stress

It has in this way generated evidence for the importance of the wider determinants of health that is of interest to a wide audience inside and outside medical research. There are the formal ones that were part of the job description; including, perhaps most crucially, a degree of oversight over the finances of government.

[Whitehall]

They chose this population group because British Civil Servants are in stable jobs, and they knew they could follow them over time. Over the past two years there has been a business department deputy director going to Water UK, a Foreign Office official to the Scotch Whisky Association, an environment department director to the Chartered Institution of Wastes Management and a Treasury special adviser to the Investment Association.
