Iqbal published his first collection of poems when he was nearly forty-five years of age. The second sentence of this passage was quoted by Allama Iqbal in his doctoral dissertation: The Development of Metaphysics in Persia 1908 , p.

Knowledge and Religious Experience

It is to be noted that this Hadith of great moral and spiritual import has been quoted by Bukhari in seven places and it is with this that he opens his Al-Jami al-SaHiH. Indeed, in view of its function, religion stands in greater need of a rational foundation of its ultimate principles than even the dogmas of science.
