United Nations Operation in the Congo (ONUC)

The staff officer who planned the operation would later become the chief of the Indian Army: Major. Many of their commanders have been implicated in war crimes, including ethnic massacres, rape, forced recruitment of children, and pillage.

Member Countries of the United Nations

ONUC's intention was an unprecedented role for a UN peacekeeping force, as it was not self-evidently peacekeeping in nature.

The United Nations and the Congo

By then it was obvious that Tshombe did not intend on rejoining the Congo; there were 300—500 mercenaries in Katanga as many as there had been before previous UN operations and new airfields and defensive positions were being constructed. At its peak strength, the United Nations Force totalled nearly 20,000 officers and men. Sweden had an active role in the UN forces during the crisis.

United Nations Operation in the Congo

The practice of time limitations has grown over the years and allows for a gradual removal of restrictions on nations conforming, at least in part, to conditions imposed by sanctioning bodies, such as the U.
