The Eternal Present in Joyce Carol Oates's “Where Are You Going, Where Have You Been?”

Unlike in other scary story collections, Oates rarely shows the reader what is exactly to be feared.

Massimo Bontempelli

It was a bitter and spiteful old woman. Connie is always in the moment with no regard for what got her there or where the moment will lead. Through it all, however, she privately harbors innocent dreams of ideal love.

Haunted: Tales of the Grotesque by Joyce Carol Oates

Judging by the title and blurb I thought I was going to be reading horror stories and dark gothic tales.
