The Book of the Courtier

For I know of some my self, that in this worlde suffre the peines which are said to be in hell. Sins then to this, the woman is as needfull as the man, I can not discern for what cause the one is made by hap more then the other.

The book of the courtier : Castiglione, Baldassarre, conte, 1478

Therefore they shoulde be sent to the constant Ile under the Arch of faithfull lovers.

Castiglione, The Courtier

Heavy sledding here, but well worth the slog.

Castiglione and 'The Courtier'

But I pourpose not now to tell Our Lady.

The Book of the Courtier by Baldesar Castiglione: 9780140441925

Cicero an excellent Oratour, in three booke of an Oratour unto his brother, facioneth such a one as never was, nor yet is like to be: Castilio an excellent Courtier, in thre booke of a Courtyer unto his deere friende, facioneth such a one as is harde to finde and perhappes unpossible. And here he retourneth to weeping, to sighes, to heavie countenance, and whan he can talke with her, to swearing, to blaspheminge, to desperation, and to all rages which unhappye lovers are lead to by these wielde beastes, that have greater thirst of blood then the verie Tygres.
