From Victim to Victor: Women Turn the Representation of Rape Inside Out.

During the nearly three millennia in which sexual violence against women have been prominently portrayed in Western, non-pornographic art, except for the single and pivotal exception of Susanna and the Elders, painted in 1610, the most renown and significant renderings in pre-modern painting and sculpture are made by men.

Rape and Representation : definition of Rape and Representation and synonyms of Rape and Representation (English)

It seems an enlightening enterprise to look at the visual representations of rape and sexual violence made by women and compare them with those made by men.

Rape and Representation

But from the start, the sad yet all-too-obvious fact makes itself known: If there is any significant artistic dialogue on rape between the sexes, it remains obscure to art history.
