Many of his works are central to modern rhetorical theory: A Rhetoric of Motives 1950 , A Grammar of Motives 1945 , Language as Symbolic Action 1966 , and Counterstatement 1931 . Practice in prose rhetoric, especially in formal and informal essays, popular and professional articles, and critical reviews.

CONTENT AND RHETORIC IN THE MODERN NOVEL: OR WHAT THE HELL IS by MICHAEL ANTHONY BOCCIA

Within the Forest of Rhetoric the close proximity between what is said and how this is said can be observed in the continuity between concerned with what is said and ways of speaking. The perspective has been denoted with the term situation; the methodology, after the manner of certain modern philosophers, may be denoted by the term argumentation. Quintilian's four qualities purity, clarity, ornament, and propriety are not intended to distinguish types of styles but to define the qualities of good style: all should be correct, clear, and appropriately ornamented.

Content and Form

Aristotle phrased this as the difference between logos the logical content of a speech and lexis the style and delivery of a speech. A speaker supports the probability of a message by logical, ethical, and emotional proofs. Selections from The Canterbury Tales and shorter poems with emphasis on literary qualities, Middle English language, and medieval setting.
