increases from approximately 34.

North Dakota Income Tax vs Minnesota Income Tax

Montana, Utah, and Minnesota also fall into the top half of the list, even when accounting for taxes on Social Security benefits.

The fiscal impacts of increased U.S. oil and gas development on local governments

Historically incumbents get 70 or more percent confirmation votes, but in 2014, two justices got just 53 percent after a small-scale campaign against retention was launched over a death penalty decision. The difference in the age distribution is reflected in the data: Whereas over 30 percent of the native population is under 22 years old, only about 10 percent of the foreign-born population is in this age range. Tax advantages, however, may not offer enough benefits to offset other costs of conducting business as a corporation.

How to Select the Location of Your New Manufacturing Plant

The whole campaign followed a months-long delay in a Supreme Court ruling on gay marriage that two members of the court declared to be motivated by electoral politics, an extremely rare open protest by sitting justices.

Ten states where gas bite hardest

Many of those who move to Wyoming are also attempting to escape the much worse economic conditions in states like Michigan and Wisconsin, and so they have little capital with which to establish a new life. If you're getting a pension, you may prefer to live in one of the locales where pension income isn't taxed. Bernie Sanders has become an electoral force.

BHI in the Media

State education leaders are facing growing distrust and even anger from local educators and school boards.
