

Forty-seventh monthly radio chat to His Excellency Elpidio Quirino< President of the Philippines delivered from his study room on September 15, 1952 at 7.00 oclock in the evening

s.n. - Quirino, Elpidio 1890

Description: -

-Forty-seventh monthly radio chat to His Excellency Elpidio Quirino< President of the Philippines delivered from his study room on September 15, 1952 at 7.00 o'clock in the evening

-Forty-seventh monthly radio chat to His Excellency Elpidio Quirino< President of the Philippines delivered from his study room on September 15, 1952 at 7.00 o'clock in the evening

Notes: Microfiche. Jakarta : Library of Congress Office ; Washington, D.C. : Library of Congress Photoduplication Service, 1995. 1 microfiche ; 11 x 15 cm.
This edition was published in 1952

Filesize: 14.33 MB

Tags: #Twenty

Quirino, Elpidio 1890

We now enjoy liberty and freedom

Quirino, Elpidio 1890

Thus in the face of the present crisis, the popular attitude is that since it has been possible to manage muddling along during the last few weeks, the chances are that the country may muddle through.

Quirino, Elpidio 1890

We cherish our established institutions. How can you expect our boys in the icy ravines of Korea to pull together and work together in common resistance with the forces of the democratic world to the hostile forces beating at their gates, when their country is not worth loving and fighting for? Two weeks ago we started the new year with all manner of resolutions. Deprived of freedom, we saw our imperative need and struggled to win it.

Quirino, Elpidio 1890

The Government is doing all it can to anticipate contingencies in the days ahead.

Twenty

Our right to liberty is not affirmed by wordy protestations of loyalty. But today, all these are threatened.

Twenty

So blunted have become the sensibilities of many people that they cannot recognize the existence of facts that have not touched them personally. That right is affirmed and that capacity established by self-sacrifice and self-discipline on the part of men and women who make a point of conscience to demonstrate human dignity as the highest flowering of freedom.

Quirino, Elpidio 1890

We evacuated to Santa Maria, Bulacan, when the Japanese were about to enter Manila.

Related Books

- Memoirs of the Foreign Legion ...
- Radikalisme agama dan perubahan sosial di DKI Jakarta - laporan penelitian
- Brazing and soldering of metals
- Safe eating - a practical four-point program to reduce your intake of toxins and increase your toler
- Comprender la arquitectura