The Difference Between Chrome and Chromium
	Chrome
Licensing	Proprietary	Open Source
Owning by Google. You can download and use Chrome for free, but you can't see or change the code or use it for another project.	You can see the code and do what you want with it, including building your own browser out of it and (in some cases) contributing to the codebase.
Security	Automatically Updated	No Automatic Updates or New Features, nor automatic security updates.
Security updates and new features are propagated through Chromium at the same time, and the whole browser's code is updated regularly.
