The Holocaust's Uneasy Relationship With Literature

Child: Dear mother, I was born of your great love, a gentle spirit.

Holocaust Poems

A wonderful addition to your library on Jewish studies, as well as a powerful teaching tool for Jewish history, or Jewish writings. It's the voices that matter -- their testimonies, the lives and memories they eternalize, and the issues they raise, confront, and refuse to stow away in handy cubbyholes. Reading Blood to Remember is like dancing in and out of time, with perspectives constantly shifting.
