About RK Narayan

Narayan Books List and Short Stories The complete list of RK Narayan books is divided into four categories named as Novels, Short Stories, Mythology and Short Story Collections. He penned a synthesis between the Indian elements and the colonial ones in his novels, especially in Malgudi series. Indra became a joke and refused to show himself, and was therefore unable to perform his duties as a god.

R.K. Narayan Quotes (Author of Malgudi Days)

In the novel, the fable-like narration is mingled with Hindu philosophy such as karma and reincarnation in order to draw attention to rich Indian heritage and Hinduism that are under the threat of degeneration by colonial culture. To find out more about Britain's long involvement in India, read Raj: The Making and Unmaking of British India 2000, a historical work by Lawrence James. Narayan books will continue to give us all an idea of cultural India.

Short Stories

The other demons leave in a panic, and Viswamithra thanks Rama for his help. When Viswamithra, Rama, and Lakshmana catch sight of Mithila City, Rama brushes a slab of stone that turns into a beautiful woman.

R.K. Narayan

Vishnu flattered Mahabali, and Mahabali offered the disguised Vishnu to ask for anything. More than a dozen novels and many short stories that followed were set in Malgudi. He died on May 13, 2001, in Chennai, India.
