

Bartran Sunderland - shipbuilders since 1837

Civil Engineering Publications - The Sunderland Site Page 106

Description: -

-Bartran Sunderland - shipbuilders since 1837

-Bartran Sunderland - shipbuilders since 1837

Notes: Cover title : Over a century of shipbuilding achievements.

This edition was published in 1956

Filesize: 5.18 MB

Tags: #Historic #Film #of #Shipbuilding #At #Bartram's #Shipyard, #Sunderland #in #1946

28 Sunderland Shipyards ideas

Galley was still 'on the job' 10 years later. To mark the retirement of Bill Willie Chalmers, Chief Draughtsman, seated at front row centre. After the partnership was dissolved in 1854, Bartram continued with his son, Robert Appleby afterwards knighted until 1871, when on the business being transferred to a new shipyard at the South Dock, George Bartram retired.

The Sunderland Site Page 063

When the first World War broke out in August, 1914, Wear shipyards were almost at their busiest. These have been ordered from many nations including Britain, Portugal, Argentine, France, Norway, Sweden, Holland, Denmark, Greece, Panama, Liberia and Poland.

The Sunderland Site Page 106

Two of the latter's sons are now in the business, this making the fifth generation in the direct line.

William Doxford & Sons

Doxford was a major shipbuilder. At left, at the head of the table, is Paul H.

Related Books

- Health in the later years
- Toledo.
- Benvenuto Cellini - opera in three acts
- Moliyariy
- Oro del Perú