CIVIL WAR BULLET IDENTIFICATION GUIDE

Confederate Enfield Pattern Cartridge from Columbus GA.

Sgt Riker's Civil War Trading Post

I like to carefully turn the bullet so I feel it is just touching the jaws at the bullet's widest diameter for the most accurate measurement. My teacher did not believe I was truly reading the books until he sat down with me to have a half hour chat on the subject.

BULLETS

The short walls just below the triangular cavity are still nice and rounded and a cut sprue evident on the nose. To me it appears as though the bullet was melted with the tip of a bayonet in the base.

Civil War Bullets Vol. II

. Many of you have probably seen Shelby Foote, possibly without realizing it.
