Protestantismo

The close union of , begun with Constantine and continued under his successors, the Roman emperors of East and West, led to much good, but probably to more.

Protestantism

Le , parfois désigné par la simple expression Le Réveil est un mouvement de qui a bouleversé le protestantisme suisse, français et belge dans la 1 re moitié du XIX e siècle, particulièrement de 1820 à 1850. Le pasteur, chez les protestants réformés, n'est qu'un professionnel du culte : n'importe qui peut faire le culte. This conception of the church, of which, in at least some aspects, we have practically so much lost sight, had a firm hold of the Scottish theologians of the seventeenth century.

The were beaten; they lost what influence they had possessed, and the princes were proportionately strengthened.

Protestantism in France

It remained in effect in the Anglican Church until the 20th century. The ferment exhausts itself, the fermentation subsides, and order reappears, possibly under new forms. How many are made by the tons of Testaments distributed by missionaries to the? In the at a small cost of preserved the old ; in the more cruel stamped out all opposition to the innovations imported from

Protestantism in France

Je conclurai avec eux une alliance éternelle, d'après laquelle je ne renoncerai plus à eux mais leur ferai du bien et mettrai la crainte qui m'est due dans leur coeur, pour qu'ils ne se détournent plus de moi. The against and Dissenters were aggravated instead of abolished.
