World Eaters

The massacres of newly discovered worlds were also to end with the fall of Ghenna. Many are the blasphemous and tyrants whose names sully the pages with their treacheries, but foremost amongst these damned souls is Angron, the Primarch of the traitorous World Eaters. During the subsequent fighting Mago was confronted by, and bested, his former friend Kharn, and before he was beheaded, made a final declaration.

Thus, the World Eaters became one of Horus' original four , along with the , the and Horus' own.

Worldeater Deviljho

From the beginning, the World Eaters, then called the War Hounds by the Emperor, were destined to travel a dark road. Early attempts to duplicate these implants by the combined efforts of the Legion's Techmarines and were far from successful.

Dalek World

Their momentous victory, however, proved short-lived as the High-Riders demanded that the two gladiators fight one another in a duel to the death.

Dalek World

Khorne's favorite number is eight, so every Khornate Warband organizes its marines into squads of 8 and its multiples. By the time the commenced, Angron had become fully enslaved to the will of the Blood God and his own unquenchable blood lust. You can now target objects and structures when you cast eldritch blast.
