There is a large commentary on it by Shah Muhammad Parsa, the close student of Shah Naqshband. Rather, you see causes, in the context of this doctrine, very much like pure, transparent glass: the glass pane is present - no one denies it - but as much as you stare at it, you do not see anything except what is behind it.

Al

Allah sheds His light on her court, and something of His light appears in the heart. His justice does not hold sway yahkum over His kindness nor does His kindness hold sway over His justice. In al-Suyuti, Tanbih al-Ghabi p.

Al

Time does not confine Him, nor place lift nor transport Him.

KAJIAN FATH AL

We have witnessed this taking place with many naysayers.

Al

May He count us in the troop that take their record with the right hand and return from the Pond fully sated, those in whose favor the Balance weighs down and whose feet stand firm on the Bridge.
