George Edward Woodberry papers, 1866

And now I scrutinized, with a minute scrutiny, the forms, and the methods, and the leading traits of his impertinent supervision. But, ere long, I felt myself getting pale and wished them gone.

No such parades are to be found in reality as have glowed on the canvas of Claude. Thenceforward my voice was a household law; and at an age when few children have abandoned their leading-strings I was left to the guidance of my own will, and became, in all but name, the master of my own actions. Minor repairs to the lower boards of 2 volumes: now barely perceptible.
