I thought the books focused more on the team and being superheroes whereas the show was more focused on each character and their development. Instead, they were borrowed from commercial circulating libraries, the most well known being owned by.

Light Novel 2nd Year Volume 3

Oh Christ, and then there's Sinestro's emotionally abusive relationship with Hal. This was the first crossover where his dull mind fucking felt relevant to the story, and not just shoehorned to please Geoff Johns. She thinks he's nuts, and tells him that she's going to call the police, and have the guy who beat her put in jail.

Light Novel Volume 2

The whole Red Lantern Corps reads to me like a group of cave people beating each other with clubs and rocks. But that went away quick. Maybe if this series was more about Dex-Starr, I would be interested.

Colonial editions, intended for sale outside the UK, were normally published as single volume editions. The Book of Truth contains what God has been saying to us for centuries, which is contained in the Holy Bible. This was literally the third or fourth time I've read it, so I'm assuming they stuck in every GL title they had.
