More than 25,000 Greek children are taken to the communist Balkan countries and Eastern Europe. A bourgeoisie did exist and formed most of the political class, although it was only a small fraction of the population.

About the Greek Civil War 1944

American pressure led to the removal of Tsaldaris and a new Liberal-Populist coalition government headed by Sophoulis. Soon after the German army pulled out, the British army arrived under General Scobie, to be greeted by an enthusiastic welcome. Venizelos supported economic modernization, social reform, and the Great Idea, a larger, expanded Greece.

Athens Greece History The Civil War (AD 1944)

It was the US and Great Britain who believed democracy in Greece, at this particular moment was not in anyone's best interest. This kind of hatred can continue for generations. The new strategy led the DSE into costly attempts to seize a major town as its seat of government, and in December 1947, 1200 DSE fighters were killed at a set battle around.
