Bollinger La Grande Année Brut 2005

Made up of the three towns Reims, Épernay, and Aÿ, it was here that the traditional method of sparkling wine production was both invented and perfected, birthing a winemaking technique as well as a flavor profile that is now emulated worldwide.

Six generations of the Bollinger family have maintained that trademark style, and Bollinger is one of the rare Grande Marque houses to be owned, controlled and managed by the same family since it was founded. The year was characterized by cool and contrasting weather conditions. Firstly, it celebrates the historic partnership between Bollinger and Bond.

In 1829, Champagne Bollinger introduced an instantly recognizable, dry, toasty style that connoisseurs around the globe have coveted ever since.

2012 Bollinger 'La Grande Année' Brut Champagne

Champagne, France A stunning and extremely rare, still red wine produced only for the greatest vintages. This wine ferments entirely in oak barrels, and undergoes its second fermentation under cork instead of crown capsule. Well-drained, limestone and chalky soil defines much of the region, which lend a mineral component to its wines.

The bubbles are powerful yet soft and there is remarkable structure and length on the palate Impressive concentration and power here. A blend like no other, the wine is as an extension to the House's prestige cuvée, La Grande Année, as is the subtle marriage between this great vintage

Champagne and the addition of red wine from a unique plot, the legendary Côte aux Enfants. This bold and brilliant Champagne takes the pillars of what makes Champagne Bollinger so unique, and pushes them to their ultimate level.
