Extension and Religion of Kalinga Empire

Ratnakara Kandali not only copied the manuscript but also added a few lines of his own to the beginning and the end of the commentary. The accumulated experience of the artists for centuries was reflected in the life-or over-life-size sculptures of the cult images and in other divine and human figures along with numerous narrations and motifs in the temple walls.

Description: The stone age culture of Orissa

It is only in the mercy of time and law that devdasi pratha , which is a source of female exploitation, a social evil, has been banned by the Government. My study shows that Saktism, both in the all-India and Orissa's contexts, not only developed as an independent religious fact, but also crept into the mainspring of Indian religions.

The vernaculars of various provinces began to develop from the secondary. Anirudha repented very much for his illicit amorous connection and sought pardon of Usha, and the same method of satisfying Radha is accepted and narrated picturesquely in the Gitagovinda of Jayadeva. However, many Oriyas in course of time embraced Christianity with the hope of getting Government jobs with lucrative salaries and accumulated wealth and power.
