Příklad, kde se pozdější tradice zdá být usměrněná podle novějších teologických zásad. Of note were Allegro's attempts at drawing parallels between the scrolls and John the Baptist, Jesus, and early Christians in one chapter, despite in the final chapter claiming that it is too early to draw parallels between the scrolls and John the Baptist, etc.

However, as for the parts of interest, one is easily caught up in the dismay as ancient documents are reduced to heaps of glue, the admiration of the high-quality ink on the parchment, and the creative frenzy of a team of scholars tackling bona fide encoded writings 57-58! The fact that they were disciples is neither here nor there.

The Dead Sea Scrolls: A Reappraisal by John Marco Allegro

Důležitou součástí nálezů jsou starozákonné texty s odlišným zněním než tím, které má sjednocená masoretská tradice, na které je založená i moderní křesťanská Bible. Thorough account of the discovery, purchase and restoration of the scrolls. The collection was in no way made easier by the fact that most of the scrolls were in minuscule pieces and some of the Bedouins might have been ripping them further to make larger sums of money from them.
