Historical revisionism

This system produces not the sense of depth but the sense that objects and their surroundings have been compressed within a shallow space behind the picture plane. However limited their accomplishments, they pointed out the hypocrisies in Victorian values and institutions. Typically, the people of ancient Greece did not worship inside their temples as we do today.

The Renaissance

Interpretations of the past are subject to change in response to new evidence, new questions asked of the evidence, new perspectives gained by the passage of time.

Although the split was along family lines at first, ideological differences arose based on opposing views of the papal role in Florentine affairs, with the Blacks supporting the pope and the Whites wanting more freedom from Rome. In reality, essays in this volume overcome the tendency, often encountered in the literature, to reduce the image of the widow to the two opposite clichés of the poor and dependent woman or of the powerful and resourceful virago. Celtic speech also remained established in certain parts of England: was spoken all over and in adjacent parts of, while survived perhaps to the 12th century in parts of, and may have been spoken on the English side of the.

The Renaissance

The problem play was a new experiment in the form and technique and dispensed with the conventional devices and expedients of theatre. The symposium's title see p. Some critics were disapproving, but.

English literature: The Victorian Age

There were three types of Sonnet — Shakespearean Sonnet, Petrarchan Sonnet, and Spenserian Sonnet. The first is the so-called liberal revolution, the shift from monarchies of the ancien régime, where inheritance legitimated political power, to constitutional republics.
