From my mother's kitchen : recipes and reminiscences (Book, 1991) [mikhmon.us.to]

But there are pleasures, too, in suc I read this, bit by bit, at the kitchen table while enjoying? It is a chronicle of a life in service to the consumption of food by others, leading to a perhaps unsavory mix of subservience and domination, love and guilt. The recipes are excellent, and the food delicious -- but the time and fussing it takes to prepare them! This is a used book. But there are pleasures, too, in succumbing to the comfort of a Jewish mother.
