Book/Magazine Library

Before the 1989 series began, the win-loss ratio was almost even, with 87 test wins for Australia to England's 86, 74 tests having been drawn. Later on, Watkins 'scurries' across. Many England fans of that generation will never walk past a confectionery stall without smiling inside.

Fred Trueman

On Warne — Gideon Haigh — 2012 Gideon Haigh on Shane Warne is an irresistible pairing: 'the finest cricket writer alive' The Australian on the greatest cricketer of our times. As with most of their young players, Yorkshire intended to take their time over establishing Trueman and were prepared to set him aside for lengthy periods. Trueman had match figures of six for 72 in his second match against Oxford, which Yorkshire lost by 69 runs.
