Chapter 5

WASHINGTON ALL RIGHTS RESERVED HON. After she had asked me many searching questions, with a good deal of doubt and hesitation in her manner, I was assigned to a room. The name passed in its present form to the county seat of the new county.

The Project Gutenberg eBook of Benjamin

Hence educated colored men, among the colored people, are at a very great discount. Douglass was traveling in the state of Pennsylvania, and was forced, on account of his color, to ride in the baggage-car, in spite of the fact that he had paid the same fare as the other passengers. I went into a large number of the counties of West Virginia, and had the satisfaction of feeling that my efforts counted for something in winning success for Charleston, which is only five miles from my old home, Malden.

Biography

The New York Times listed The Grapes of Wrath as the best-selling book of 1939, and by February 1940, 430,000 copies had been printed.

Biography

After we had spent some time in Washington in hard effort in the interest of the bill, it was called up in Congress and was passed with very little opposition.

Angie Dickinson

I decided to undertake the work, and after spending a few days at my old home in Malden, West Virginia, I proceeded to the town of Tuskegee, Alabama.
