Al- though the government first discarded and then shelved Tarui's ideas, they resurrected and praised his foresight after Japan officially erased Ko- rea in its own terms.

Recent Acquisitions in Japanese Books

The Japanese economy grew significantly during the Tokugawa period. Certainly this view was not unheard of during the first decades of the Meiji period, but it was by no means dominant.

Kazoku ron / Tamaki Hajime cho

Yet he, like Katō and Inoue, was closely associated with the state, and his moral views were consistent with the needs of the state. In the month following the first visit of Commodore Perry, Rear-Admiral Putiachin arrived at Nagasaki as an official Russian envoy and proposed to conclude agreements on trade and frontier demarcation.
