The unpublished researches of Lodge into public and private records, in order to compile an accurate Irish peerage, can be compared in volume and thoroughness to Lyon's 32.

Saint Charles Borromeo, Cardinal, Archbishop of Milan, Confessor. November 4. Rev. Alban Butler. 1866. Volume XI: November. The Lives of the Saints

The Royal Irish institution for promoting the fine arts was founded, under royal patronage, in 1815: its vice-patron is the Marquess of Anglesey, its guardian, the lord-lieutenant, and its president, the Duke of Leinster : its affairs are superintended by eight vice-presidents all noblemen , and a committee of directors. In the course of the eighteenth century they had to endure severe reverses of fortune; indeed, they lived in poverty and need, and at the time of the partition of Poland the Polish province of the order numbered 20 with more than 500 male or inmates.
