administration, because the movement for autonomy of East Pakistan created a threat to the prestige of the army in one hand and to the control of the Punjabis over West Pakistan on the other.

Bangladesh

The strike was celebrated in Dhaka on 11 March 1948, at the direction of this council. The ideology of setting up a government and society based on the religious ideas of its former western wing gradually led to the rise of radical Islamization, where various radical groups came into existence, identifying themselves as the extension of the radical and terrorist outfits of Pakistan, Afghanistan and other middle-eastern Islamic states. Some fingers have been raised at Indira Gandhi who did not relish seeing Bangladesh being run by someone like Zia having close ties with China and Pakistan.

AWAMI LEAGUE

His grandnephews , , , , , and Sheikh Parash are all Bangladeshi politicians. She is fluent with data modelling, time series analysis, various regression models, forecasting and interpretation of the data. But none of them preferred parliamentary system as the form of government.

Bangladesh: A study on its radical Islamism and plight of free

As Muslim, Christian, and Dalit minorities are still subject to discriminations and persecutions in India, formally or informally, so are non-Muslim minorities in Pakistan. Berkeley: University of California Press, 1990.

PROFILE

As - Gangass issue, South Talporti Island issue, Problem of Tin Biga Corridor, Sea boundary problem in the Bay of Bengal. He became popular for his opposition to the ethnic and institutional discrimination of Bengalis in Pakistan, who comprised the majority of the state's population.
